

COSMOPOLITAN

Helen Gurley Brown, Editor-In-Chief International Editions

November 16, 2005

Dear Anthony – may I call you that?

It is absolutely thrilling to have my Royal typewriter all cleaned up and repaired and back on my desk – I think you are a genius! Yes, we know this machine is what I need in my life – computers offer many different services but I don't need those because my brilliant assistant deals with whatever needs to be achieved by computer. I'm just thrilled that you could make my 40-year-old Royal manual typewriter frisky and fresh and achieving as always - thanks for all that gifted work!

With my sincerest thanks
and best wishes,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Helen', written in a cursive style.

Mr. Anthony Casillo
TTS Business Products
325 Nassau Blvd.
Garden City, New York 11530

HGB:ss